

ERASMUS +

WORKING PROGRAMME OF THE STUDENTS' MOBILITY

I. PARTICIPANT'S INFORMATION

Name and surname: Nikola Mičianová

Study/Vocational field: horticulture – binding and arranging flowers

Sending organisation : Stredná odborná škola Pruské, 018 52 Pruské 294 Slovakia

Contact person: Ing. Janka Fedorová, the project coordinator, fedorova.janka@gmail.com, +421 905 408367

II. INFORMATION ABOUT THE PLANNED WORKING PROGRAMME ABROAD

Receiving organisation:

Langenlois Bildungszentrum Gartenbau, Am Rosenhügel 15,A-3550 Langenlois, Austria

Contact person (name, position, e-mail, phone.): Andreas Kovac ,coordinator, +432734 /
2106, andreas.kovac@lfs-langenlois.ac.at

Planned dates of beginning and end of the intership: 17.05-30.05 2015

Expected skills, knowledge and competences:

- The participant is able to use knowledge and experience each other through international contact
- The participant is developing his/her handicraft skills in floristics
- The participant is improving human, cultural and social skills
- The participant is gaining new understanding of skills and he/she is going to be useful in floristics by using aesthetic design
- The participant will be opener to other cultures, other ways of life
- The participant will realise the position of a European citizen
- The participant will improve language skills

Detailed programe of the intership:

1st day (Sunday)

Arrival of the participants to the intership, accomodation

2nd day (Monday)

Appointment with the project coordinator of partner organisation

Acquainting with the school, its presentation

Discussion with a specialized teacher, practice teacher teacher and talking about the programme

The participants are going to attend the specialized lessons – gardening, planting, fruit growing, floristics, binding and arranging flowers, arranging material, floral design

3rd day (Tuesday)

The participants are going to attend the specialized lessons – gardening, planting, fruit growing, floristics, binding and arranging flowers, arranging material, floral design or other subjects from the area of horticulture

4th day (Wednesday)

The participants are going to attend the specialized lessons – gardening, planting, fruit growing, floristics, binding and arranging flowers, arranging material, floral design or other subjects from the area of horticulture

5th day (Thursday)

The participants are going to attend the specialized lessons – gardening, planting, fruit growing, floristics, binding and arranging flowers, arranging material, floral design or other subjects from the area of horticulture

6th day (Friday)

The participants are going to attend the specialized lessons – gardening, planting, fruit growing, floristics, binding and arranging flowers, arranging material, floral design or other subjects from the area of horticulture

7th day (Saturday)

Excursion in garden and landscape firms, shops, gardens and parks

8th day (Sunday)

Knowing local flora and culture of the host country. Free programme

9th day (Monday)

Knowing local flora and culture of the host country. Free programme

10th day (Tuesday)

Participant's work at the allocated work place.

His/her participation in construction of simple arrangements according to the plan for practical education and according to needs of the company

11th day (Wednesday)

Participant's work at the allocated work place.

His/her participation in construction of simple arrangements according to the plan for practical education and according to needs of the company

12th day (Thursday)

Participant's work at the allocated work place.

His/her participation in construction of simple arrangements according to the plan for practical education and according to needs of the company

13th day (Friday)

Participant's work at the allocated garden shop or other centre for practical education under supervisor's control

Participation in construction of simple arrangements according to the plan for practical education and according to needs of the company

Final evaluation of the intership by specialized teacher, practice supervisor, participants and their teacher

Awarding the certificates and europasses.

14th day (Saturday)

Participant's work at the allocated work place.

Knowing local flora and culture of the host country. Free programme

15th day (Sunday)

Departure day

Participant's roles during the intership

- Attendance at lessons of special subjects
- Practical preparation in the firms - shops and garden centres
- Meetings and discussions with students in the shop of receiving partner
- Presentation of their school spaces and shops to teachers, students and colleagues in floristics
- Learning new inovative technologies in specified area with different concrete orientation – depending on possibilities of receiving partner
- Knowing social cultures
- Application of gained knowledge, experience and skills
- Professional excursions
- Study of aesthetic, cultural and historical influences to making of floral arrangemets in the host country
- Discussion with students, special teachers and florists

Monitoring and mentoring of the participants:

Host organisation is supervising and looking after the inteships participants in all necessary sites.

SOŠ Pruské is delegating the teacher responsible for abroad intership of school's participants. The teacher is contact person, who is solving any problems about the intership

During the intership the teacher is:

- monitoring progress of the participants
- checking how the specialised teacher is signing the completion of participant's roles in the list of special roles
- checking the evaluation by the specialised teacher because the specialised teacher is visiting the place for practice every week to evaluate previous week

- informing weekly the sending organisation and its coordinator about achieved results
- evaluating the participants' practice after end of the internship and writing the report
- contacting the project coordinator
- verifying whether the participant makes the project presentation for the class in two weeks after end of the internship
- verifying whether the international coordinator is getting e-report and Europass in two weeks

Evaluation of the internship:

- the participant will gain the internship certificate (qualification based on the final report, presentation and Europass (Work internship abroad))

III. OBLIGATION OF CONNECTED SUBJECTS:

Signature of this document the participant, the sending and receiving organisation confirms keeping the principles of The Obligation of partnership to quality of Leonardo da Vinci projects, in the attached file.

PARTICIPANT

Signature:

..... Date:

SENDING ORGANISATION

We are confirming our agreement with the planned programme.

After end of the intership our institution will ensure Europass Mobility, another form of approval the intership

Coordinator signature:

..... Date:

RECEIVING ORGANISATION

We are confirming our agreement with the planned programme.

After end of the intership our institution will issue the certificate

Coordinator signature:

..... Date: